

Life Science

Protect your innovation.

Overview

Coverage and claim issues surrounding clinical trials and life science products are challenging.

With years of experience in the life science sector, we help you create a risk management and comprehensive benefits plan to keep you on track for meaningful discoveries.

ABD Advantage

Insightful Risk Management

Specializing in program design for product liability, clinical trials, product recall, and professional liability, we arrange your coverage without a learning curve, fast-tracking your documentation so you can maintain momentum.

Custom Strategy

Since clinical trials are your most vulnerable area of exposure, we offer our proprietary Clinical Trial Pac Coverage designed to keep you protected, with important and unique coverage grants not available anywhere else for clinical-stage companies.

Cost-Effective Plan

We provide broad access to the insurance marketplace and work to find the best coverage at competitive rates for your business and employees.

Advanced Technology

Our one-of-a-kind ABD Connect Clinical Trials Insurance Portal, built from scratch with input from clients, provides a secure cloud-based platform where you can efficiently manage global trials, coverage requirements by country, and evaluate information required to secure accurate quotes.
